"I would like to express my appreciation to all of the companies who submitted Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military 2010 surveys," said Bill Basnett, vice president operations, CivilianJobs.com. "This is our second year conducting the MVE for Military survey and we are pleased to have a 30% increase in surveys submitted for 2010. The submission responses show us that despite recent economic challenges, corporate America values the highly-skilled talent and leadership ability that veterans bring to a company when hired."

The Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military 2010 was open to all U.S.-based companies. The finalists were selected based on surveys in which employers outlined their 2010 recruiting, training and retention plans that best serve military service members and veterans. Winners will be selected from the pool of finalist companies and will be announced May 2, 2010. Both winners and finalists will be recognized on the CivilianJobs.com web site as well as in the May issue of Civilian Job News, CivilianJobs.com's world-wide military base newspaper.

To be included on the 2011 award submission deadline notification, companies should send an e-mail request to MVE\(at\)CivilianJobs\(dot\)comCivilianJobs(dot)com).

About MVE

The CivilianJobs.com Most Valuable Employers (MVE) for Military serves to help military-experienced job seekers identify the top employers to target for civilian careers.
